

Evaluation Form

1. Background and Rationale

①

Research background is unclear, Vague statements for the rational.

②

③

Clear statements for background or rational.

④

⑤

Background and rational is clearly stated.

2. Objectives and Methodology

①

Missing or not related. Fails to address the innovation of the project.
Fails to address methods or methods are not feasible. Vague testing outcomes. Does not acknowledge limitations.

②

③

Objectives relevant to the project with limited innovation.

④

Describes feasible activities, methods, and analysis techniques. Acknowledges limitations.

⑤

Specifically shows qualitative and quantitative measures. Describe how the project is innovative. Provides a detailed description of design and approach. Methods and analysis well explained.

3. Results and summary

①

Unclear results or summary, logically flawed.

②

③

Suitable statement for the result and summary

④

⑤

Well-organized results and clearly stated summary, logically flawless, concise statement.

4. Oral Presentation

②

Expression is not fluent. Poor transition and body language. No vocal variety. Poor time management.

④

⑥

Clear expression, suitable voice and tone. Appropriate time management.

⑧

⑩

Fluent expression. Natural transition and body language. Vivid presentation. Good time management.

5. Power Point Appearance

①

Poorly designed PPT slides, e.g., improper font size and color, typos, grammatical mistakes.

②

③

Appropriately designed PPT slides with acceptable appearance.

④

⑤

Well-designed PPT slides with comfortable appearance and professional layouts.

Total score (maximum 30 points):

Strength:

Weakness:

Overall comment: